

Quality, Food safety & Halal policy

Unity Foods is committed to be the preferred partner of our customers and other stake holders interested parties by providing quality, safe and halal products which fulfill their needs and expectations. We provide high quality halal product processed in environment that fully compliant with all the health and safety standard requirement. We strive to follow the global best practices. And apply all legislation issued by governments & regulatory authorities.

Following are cornerstones of our philosophy.

- I. We are committed to offer a range of responsibly sourced products that meet the expectations of our customer specifically focusing on the quality safety and halal ingredients of our food products. We manage our risks but never compromise on quality, safety and legal compliance.
- II. We work with business partners to ensure that our product meet health, safety standard quality, safety and halal product assortment that fulfils the needs and expectations of our customers. Understanding our customer needs and expectations, we seek to strengthen our customer relationship by offering the differentiated quality levels of our product to ensure their success.
- III. In applying domestic and international prerequisite of quality, safety and halal management system. We continually review new development to ensure that we remain ahead of the curve. At each step of value chain we ensure efficiency and compliance of best practices.
- IV. We continuously monitor and verify our performance to improve our quality, food safety and halal management system and operations to support our customer needs, enhance our own competence and effectiveness. We are also committed towards continual improvement by setting SMART objectives & targets and provide sufficient resources in order to achieve these objectives and targets. We learn from our experience and share expertise through a clearly defined and effective communication platform.
- V. We strive for excellence which is enabled through committed professionals and engaged people to meet customer needs and satisfaction. Our people remain relevant through training and industry professional use this knowledge to deliver the best quality, safe and halal products.

CEO

Unity foods

